VET Certificates

These VET (Vocational Education and Training) courses are designed for students who have identified a specific career focus and wish to follow an educational pathway towards that goal.

Stackable VET Courses

These courses are suitable for students who would like to gain some experience in VET training without the commitment of completing a full qualification. It provides selected units of competency relevant to the industry sector, a pathway to further studies and some practical experience in an area of interest.

Some of these competencies may lead to employment in industries that do not require a full qualification.

These competencies can be used towards completion of a full qualification through credit transfer arrangements.

SACE Credits

Completion of certificate competencies contributes to achievement of the SACE. A nominal 70 hours of VET equals 10 credits. Certificates at level II can contribute to SACE Stage 1 and Certificates at level III can contribute at Stage 2.

The SACE Board provides a Recognition Register that details the certificates that qualify in the SACE and the number of credits that each contributes.

Students who use a certificate to work towards their SACE will need to include further study at Stage 1 or 2 to achieve the 200 credits required. This will include study of a Research Project of a semester's duration.

The information in this booklet is correct at the time of printing and subject to change based on student interest and availability of resources.
